B. T. IAN MORN, Diltor. Published on Thursday Mornings

LTAN communications on the business of the paid, except at the option of the pub

A Weekly Iournal-Devoted to Politics, Literature, Agricult

MRIGS COUNTY

"ONE COUNTRY ONE CONSTITUT

BY R. T. VAN HORN

her must be pospered to scoure and I'v To Clubs, of ten ar more, the paper will carnished at a riseral reduction in price.

POMEROY, TUESDAY, A

ROCKS AHEAD. BY MARTIN TUPPER.

Steady, stendy, gullant vessel ! Hard sport—obey the heim! Less the brakers round thee wrestle, heat the billows overwhalm; Though so pleasant just at present Be the voyage thou hast sped, Look you! In the rocks ahead!

Able sies the license of opinion Till religion's pure dominion Dwindle feebly to a name; Greed of gain and sorded sense Tempt the waywardness of youth. And is peeds the best defence Of the citadel of truth.

> See that no pernicions panie Scare the good from duty's post, Lest, by license grow tyrannic, Liberty be but a boast. Let the greatest, best and wisest Calmly guide thy eagle course, Or se more to beaven thou risest, Headlong flong with dewnward erce!

Let the press, with truth enlightened, Nobly lead the people's mind, That, while public wrong are righten'd, Private names go unmalign'd. Let not evil spirits pander. To the passions of the meb. Nor the pen be dipped in stander, God and man of love to rob.

If all clamor everriding Law supremely rules the land-If domestic love, abiding, Rules at home with patriarch hand--If refinement chastens pleasure -If fair dealing hallows gain-If wise intervals of leisure Soothe the heart and clear the brain;

Yes, as now, let patriet steer thee, - Undiamayed by men or things; ligion's charub cheer thee Be as Elen, not an Edom, Shall thy happy name be read. And he glorious Ship of Preedem Washer all the rocks ahead! MY EARLY HOME.

I sit pline-alone in thought, Andthronging visions come, In miniow time of beauty caught From childhood's happy home.

O happy home! blest boon below, To masing pilgrims given: First fountain spring of joy we know, And fittost type of Heaven.

Now truthful'y the dear ones rise, As mem'ry calls them up; I see the smiles and loving eyes, Of all that kindred group.

I'm with them now, a boy again, My heart is light with joy; No anxious care nor thought of pain Our bli sful sports alloy.

Beated around the blazing fire, With mirth in every heart; Our Mother dear and loving sire, In merry plays take part.

Our simple hearts all nature love-The pretty birds and flowers; The dancing brook and shady grove, The sunshine and the showers.

And when at night we go to rest, Our Mother's pray'r we hear; "Tis thus we all with love are blest, And nothing known of fenr.

We ask no joy we cannot find, In this abode of love: All is so dear, so good and kind,

So like the home above. dream is e'er-that early home Lies mantled in pest years;

But when my heart feels sad and lone. When flow unbid len tears-Then Faith and Hope my soul assure

That in the spirit-land, I'il meet again as angels pure, That cherished household band of misery, and I saw quite as many women as So he gets and saves, and takes care of Like Othello 'he was not easily moved.' roughly expt work in the fields throughout Savoy. himself-a part of their duty which the and it was only by cutting out the whole of cart, is one of my liveliest recollections of yet to learn, at least to practice.

They Women as Field Laborens .- Mr. Gree.

THE VILLAGE OF HUMDRUM.

Man is still in bondage to the elements: and since the beastly maxim is even now prevalent that the strong should take care of themselves, and use the weak as their another up. It would not be Christian to see what the trouble was.'

| cave them to this fate. Leisure is very good to us but would be ruinous to them. movements of the operatives soon absorbed mingham whistle, and a watch in his pocket. When he marries he will buy red curtains for his windows, and a showy mirror to hang on his wall. For these valuable considerations, he parts with the nine hours a day which machinery has saved; but has

Twas only last week, sir, that a promising
a day which machinery has saved; but has

"You, I say! she goes pooty, don't she lin their production, so there are those in all civilized communities who neglect to cultivate their better principles, and who allow their evil passions to gain the ascendancy.

It is not very strenge that so much vice and crime prevail in what are called civilthan upon him who places the intoxicating shattered, the doors unhinged, an intomany in this world of sin and misto hang on his wall. For these valuable the stripper. 'But you must be careful how you move around amongst the hardware.

Twas only last week, sir, that a promising
a day which machinery has saved; but has

To have Geren Beans, Peas and Corn

The production, to the mouth of a many in this world of sin and mistitle expect to find in the neat, vine-covered cotto civilized communities who neglect to cultithe stripper.

To have Geren Beans, Peas and Corn

To have Geren Beans, Peas and Cor no more bread than before. For these blessings he will make his body a slave, and academy here—was drawn into that very upon, and directed by, purifying religion, leave his mind all uncultivated. He is con- card sir, and before any assistance could So that if you look therein for his under- factured into No. 16, super extra, cotton are not worth your search. the factitious inequality of condition, and as melancholy relics." thinks it scarce right for bread to come fastest into hands that add nothing to the general stock. So many grow restless, and a few pilfer. In a ruder state, crimes are lockets, and wear in remembrance of deparfew-the result of violent passion. At Hum- ted worth.' ral evil, there rises a court house and a jail, without waiting for an answer. which must be paid for in work; then judges through circumstances, far more than it was forcible against an 'attack on his rear.' formed by them, through their own free will. Still further, the men who violate the Blast your pictur let go! Aint ye ashamed! law of the body, using the mouth much and Get out-taint pooty. Darnation seize you! soon find nature taking vengeance for the The gearing by this time had wound him offence. Then unnatural remedies must up so that he was obliged to stand on tip toe. oppose the artificial disease. In old time His hands were revolving vigorously behind ride, suited all complaints, and was admin- drawn into hostilities. Now Humdrum has its "Medical Faculty," the momentum of the cylinder kept it reforc. Thus the burden is increased to little purpose.

The strong men of Humdrum have grown rich and become educated. If one of the laboring men is stronger than his fellows, feelin' for a feller in distress? Oh dear!

Ans. Leaving the choir in a huff because one is dissatisfied with the leader's requirements.

Sth. What is a swell?

Ans. A professor of music, who presents work, but by using the hands of others was to Greene.' in one of his letters from Savoy, thus whom his cunning overreaches. Yet he is The card was stopped at last, but Jonaaks of the condition of women in that not more avaricious than they. He has than's clothes were so tangled in the gearing A girl of fourteen driving a yoke of oxen strong have always known how to perform; the 'invested territory,' that he was finally nuached to a cart, walking barefoot beside though the more difficult part. How to take released. the gam and playing the good-stick, while a care of others, to think for them and help 'What are you about here?' said the overboy of her own age lay at length in the them to think for themselves-they have seer, entering.

Savoyard ways. Nut brown, unbonneted Alas, we are still in bondage to the ele- sweted the stripper. women, hoeing corn with an implement be- ments, and so long as two of the "enlighttween an adze and a pick-axe, (and not a ened" nations of the earth, England and of knowledge under difficulties, a pair of when he assures you on his "he hed implement, either, for so rugged and America, insist on weaving the garments overhauls were charitably loaned him, and an article cost so much, and the property of the world, not because he scattered suddenly towards Mill Hill, &c., to and from market, we encountered they would clothe the world, but that their giving a series of short kicks with either leg at every town. So much hard rough work strong men might live in fine houses, wear on his way, as if to assure himself that he and exposure is fatal to every trace of beau-gay apparel, dine on costly food, and their had brought away his full compliment of and exposure is fatal to every trace of beauty, and I do not remetiber to have seen a mouths be served by other men's hands—woman in Savoy even moderately good looking, while many were absolutely revolting. That this is not Nature's fault is proved by the general aspect of the children, who, not the only remedy for all the evils at the only remedy for all the evils at hundrum in the Christian idea of wealth, and clean out of his house, home and though swartly, have often good forms and the Christian idea of work?

In a certain village in Massachusetts the topers label their jugs "Washing Fuid."

Very appropriate for rum has washed many a man clean out of his house, home and hundrum in the Christian idea of work?

A WANKEE IN A COTTON MILL. BY "GAMBORE. " of themselves, and not the weak as their tools, shough to the manifest injury of the weak, the use of machinery has hitherro been but a trilling, boon in comparison with what a may be in the village of Hundrum, its thomself, and allowed, fed not clothed, warned, introduced, in the twenty-four that they may all be housed, fed not clothed, warned, introduced in the care, in the care room of a syle, and the object or meaning the course of the twenty-four that they may all be housed, fed not clothed, warned, introduced.

brain. So these calculators think the men of Humdrum shall work fourteen hours a day as before. It would be dangerous, say they, to set fire to so much time. The deladed creatures would soon learn to fie and as a array of plaid shawls and hood bonnets, steal, and would speedily end by eating one deposited his good stick upon the stairs, and But, we think, it is easily made apparent,

So the wise men of Humdrum persuade his whole attention. Being, however, of an inquiring turn of mind and seeing much that hours; more is produced than is consumed. was calculated to perplex one whose obsertheir neighbors to work the old fourteen hours; more is produced than is consumed. So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send off the superfluities of the vil
So they send of the vil
So they send of the vil
So they send of the vil
So they send standing, imagination, reason, you will find warp yarn.' 'I s-s s-wow! I believe veour joking! them like three grains of wheat in three bushels of chaff; you will seek them all stuttered Jonathan. 'Fact, sir,' continued stripper, 'and his At Humdrum nature begins to revolt at ago, and got five bunches of the same yarn, will reform and testrain the evil passions

'By mighty! that can't be true!'
'Fact, sir, fact! and each of his fellow students purchased a skein a piece, to set in drum they are numerous-the result of 'Is that a fact, now! was he really cardwant, indolence, or neglected education; ed, spun and set in lockets?' A sense of they are, in a great measure, crimes against personal danger here shot across our hero's property. To remedy this new and unnatu- mind; and he bogan to retreat precipitately caught a cold.

There was not much room to spare be and lawyers and jailors are needed likewise, tween himself and the gearing of the card in this artificial state, and add to the com- behind, another step backwards completed the ceremony of introduction. His un- rants. The old Athenians sent yearly seven whisperables being of large 'calibre,' the beautiful youths and virgins as a tribute to process of sparling them into a knot was no the Monitaur. The wise men of Humdrum ways slow. Our hero 'gave tongue' instanshut up in jail, a large number, a sacrifice ter, and by the twentieth gyration of the to the spirit of modern cupidity; unfortunate embodiment, the music was melodious. His wretches who were the victims and foes of explosive tones were scientific, and did honsociety; men so weak in head or heart, that or to his knowledge of dynamics. Gen. their bad character was formed for them, Scott himself could not have protested more every sickly dunce was cured "with mother- him, but he dare not venture them too wort and tansy," which grew by the road near the 'seat of war' lest they should be The card stripper threw off the belt, but with their conflicting systems, homeopathic volving, and our hero supposing it in full and allopathic-but no more health than be- operation, burst out anew: 'Oh, stop her ! do-I aint well and orter

he, also, will become rich, and educate his I'll be carded and spur, and made into know everything about the scionce, we children. He becomes rich, not by his own to lockets! Jerusalem! How I wish I he cannot conceal his own ignorance. perhaps the average share of selfishness, that it was no slight job to extricate him.

Nothing, sir, only stripping flats,' ar

Our hero not caring to resume his pursuit

CRIME AND ITS C.

Crime and its causes form will never reform the evil passions of men tent to grow up a body-nothing but a body, reach him, he was run through and manu- It is the quick and healthy conscience within, and not the outward social arrangements > natural to every son and daughter of degenerate Adam .- New York Sun. WANTED .- A pair of speciacles to the eyes of potatoes.

A stick to measure narrow escapes.

The hook and line with which an angler A pair of stockings made of Ned Bunt line's Life-yarn.

A pair of gloves for the hands of a watch An umbrella to use in the reign of ty-shillings a week for. Some lemonade made of a sour and the sweets of matrimony. A snare to catch brick-bats.

A cement for filling the decayed teath of A span of horses that can draw the

820,000 prize. MUSICAL CATECHISM .- 1st. What is Ans. Almost any remark one singer maker

2d. What is beating time? Ans. Singing so fast that time cannot keep 3d. What is a rest ?

Ans. Going out of the choir to get some 4th. What is a staccate movement?

Ans. Leaving the choir in a huff because

Ans. A professor of music, who pretends stupid fellow, to know everything about the scionce, while THINGS FOUNDED IN REASON .- The idea time, and in the very manner that is reques- moments, and on being told that there were of superiority felt by a man in a big steam- ted. boat over another in a little steam The contempt of a man who is going the whole route in a stage, feels for one gets in to ride only a few miles. The dislike a person experiences against a stranger who wears his hat rather to please must "take the responsibility" of acting upsimself than any body else. The pride of a gentleman in the the theatre over one in the pit.

The credit you award so a shopk A loafer happened in at one of the pring offices at Lynn, a day or two since asked the qest on a nerce, Markets and General Intelligence.

ONE DESTINY."

81.50 in Advance.

VOL. 3.-NO. 43.

LARGE TREES.

er paper, we gave a short ac-Baobab tree of Southern Africa, out of the twenty-four shat they may all be becaused, find and deletted, started the started that the starte

PICTURES FROM LIFE.

A DUTCHMAN'S ADVERTISEMENT.

Rund away or solden, or sdraved, mine black horse, about fourteen oper fifteen hands and obligations, that must restrain men from six inches hie-he has last been got four wicked and criminal acts. What may be black legs, two behind and two before, and called intellectual civilization, is better than he ish black all over his body, but has been a state of savageism, but it is only the pro- got some vite spots pon his back where de formed a very accurate conception of the when of the proper size for use, shell and disconsolate mother came down two days ago, and got live bunches of the same yarn, will reform and testrain the evil passions goese fat, and now de vite spots is all black ury should be gloyed:

gress of a truly Christian civilization that skin vas rup off, but I greesed em mit some proper manner in which this innocent luxnecessary is to prevent them from moulding;

He trots and kanters, and paces, and sometime he valks, and ven he valks all his ags and feet goes on, von after anotherhe has two ears upon his head and both alike, but von is placker than de odder von -he has two eyes, von ish put out, and de only got dose pefore; he holts up his head and looks gaily, and ven he ish frightened he joomps about like everything in de vorld; he vill ride mit a saddle, or a chare, or a a cart, or he will go py himself millout nopody put a pag upon his pack, vit a poy on he ish now very old, and his head, ven stays pehint, only ven he durns round he gets mat, and den his tail sometimes comes first. Whoever vill principle. pay $5 reward; and if he prings pack the tief vat stole 'em he shall pay pesides $20 and ax no questions.

WHAT AN EDITOR MUST DO .- He must ublish all the news-but he must not publish anything that is not founded in fact. He must endeavor to raise the standard his patrons are subject.

aladsome sick or well-whether the mercury runs high or low-whether political Talk about conditions in life; he is the happrospects are fair or foul—still he must py man who is contented with his lot. either pretty or popular, or he is deemed a

He must be literally "all things to men," and try to please every body-or he

A poor fellow who took the overland route to California, writes back that he was his course umbrella for grease, and for a a wife, says he did not find it half as hard

BOOKS, FOR THE YOUNG.

Books are issues of the mind, and what the Baobab tree of Southern Africa, then set down as the largest spetantic, are the Bartes Horizole, however, weep in Jasmania, a member of light hearted unerance of perveited minds the kingdom whose proportions, if and deprayed hearts, is a mighty engine in the corrupt than the corrupt than the collection and careful preservation of manure. This is a fact retablished beyond the kingdom whose proportions, if and deprayed hearts, is a mighty engine in the corrupt than the corrupt than the corrupt than the collection and careful preservation of manure. This is a fact retablished beyond the kingdom whose proportions, if and deprayed hearts, is a mighty engine in the corrupt than the collection and careful preservation of manure. This is a fact retablished beyond the kingdom whose proportions, if and deprayed hearts, is a mighty engine in the corrupt than the collection and careful preservation of manure. This is a fact retablished beyond the kingdom whose proportions, if and deprayed hearts, is a mighty engine in the corrupt than the collection and careful preservation of manure. This is a fact retablished beyond the kingdom whose proportions, if and deprayed hearts, is a mighty engine in the corrupt than the collection and careful preservation of manure. This is a fact retablished beyond the careful preservation of the collection and careful preservation of manure are the collection and careful preservation of manure.

THE DRUNKARD.

Poverty, in itself, is not a crime. No so they send off the superfluites of the viledage, and, in return; a first pocks tean, and constituent of the superfluites of the viledage, and, in return; a first pocks tean, and constituent of the superfluites of the viledage and, in return; a first pocks tean, and constituent of the superfluites of the viledage and, in return; a first pocks tean, and fashions intended the superfluites of the viledage and the in yours and draw her gently to you, pass in the same way with perfect success. your left arm over her right shoulder, diag-onally down across her back, under her left. Green corn may be preserved in the folin your arms, without deranging the economy of her tippet or ruffle, and by a sweet pressure upon her mouth, revel in the blisa-fulness of your situation, without smacking your lips on it as you would over a roast train, a stout man, in shirt and pantaloons, each of which had suffered more from wear-ing than washing, trudging along in the middle of the street drawing a small board wheel wagon, heavily loaded with dirty clothing and bedding, with a tawny child three or four years old astride of the load, and his wife with a younger child in her arms walking by the side. He trudged He must endeavor to raise the standard slowly along, stopped a moment and gave a of public morals, but he must not attack any careless gaze at the train, the passengers and vice or error, or infirmity, to which any of speciators and then marched ahead with the He must write whether he is gloomy or travelling that silenced the lookers on and made the Locomotive itself look black. [State Journal.

A PUZZLE .- A bright eyed Hule girl, about ie must print whatever is handed to him five years old was asked by her Sunday for insertion whether he can read it or not school teacher a few days since, how many -let his space be little or much-at the Gods there were; the child heatrated a few but one God, she very anlessly replied He must remember and July execute all "How can one God make so many different orders, verbal or written, that his kind pat-rons are so obliging as to dictate. Kinds of religion?" This simple question might puzzle many an older head for a so-

A gentleman travelling on an unfreon principle—pursue an independent course quented road in Maine, and passing a solution to uphold the rights and liberties, and to improve the manners and morals of was arrested by a loud cry of "Hello there! his country—determine to be housest in the worst of times—worst of times—world like a free man and Brimstone! Hello!!' and a man was seen like a slave—wear out his press and rushing in great haste, wearing a leather type, and finally himself, and leave to his children—if he can keep the one, and acting the traveller.

"What is the matter?—what is the inatter?" inquired the traveller. "Oh, I'm out of terbacker," replied he "got any about you ?"

to use his old to get married as he did to buy the furni-

D'Job Printing, of every description will

A MINT TO FARMERS.

Of various branches of farm economic management can the greatest amount of ferme ulizing matter be produced from a given quantity of hay, grain, and other farm pro practice to prevent its loss with very beneficial results. It is as follows:

In the fall, after removing all the manure haul a quantity of dirt obtained from punds and other sources, into my vard, and by the way, every farmer who has a small stream or run of water upon his premises. should have one or more ponds, as the mud

KISSING .-- A correspondent of the Wil- TO HAVE GREEN BEANS, PEAS AND CORN mington Herald says that the following IN WINTER .- A gentleman says that he saw rules have been adopted by middle aged in January, green peas as succulent, to all married gentlemen when they assume the appearance, as they were when plucked from privilege of kissing their young and pretty the vine some five or six months before. cousins. They certainly seem to have The mode of preparing them, is to pluck. Ot course you must be taller than the this done, they will be fine and sweet in size lady you interest to kiss—take her right hand following spring. Beans may be preserved arm, press her to your bosom, at the same lowing manner: Pluck the cars of green time she will throw her head back, and you corn when fit for boiling, strip off the busks, odder ish upon de side of his head, and ven you go to todder side he vont see you—ven he eats a good deal he has a pig pelly—he has a long tail vat hangs down behind, put has a long tail vat hangs down behind, put as if you were firing off percussion caps, or trying the water-cocks of a steam engine, shell off the corn by running the prong of trying the water-cocks of a steam engine, a fork along the base of the grain, including odder ish upon de side of his head, and ven have nothing to do but to lean a little foryou go to todder side he vont see you—ven ward and press your lips to hers, and the water; leave them in until the water boils

After being thus prepared, it must be spread out on thin cloths in a shady, airy, place to dry it; it should be stirred every day until dried thoroughly. When cooked We saw a day or two since while it should be put in cold water and boiled an waiting at the Depot for the departure of the hour or more, the water to be pretty well boiled off. When the water is nearly off a little milk added to it will improve the taste. Beans, peas and green corn will retain their original flavor more perfectly by being pressed in hermetically scaled cans.

85 Captain, said a ragged country urcollar, 'Captain are you going to haul manuro to-day ?"

No my ragged rascal, what makes you 'Why I see you've got such a thundering big pair of side boards up.

A news boy was heard to say that he had given up selling papers, and had gone into he mesmerizing business. "I get five dollars per week," said he "for playing."

"Playing what?" asked one of his com-"Possum," replied the boy.

A learned German astrologer has ascertained that this earth will be destroyed by a comet in just twenty-two million years! The cute philosopher deserves the public thanks for postponing the event to so distant "Bridget, what did you do with that allow Mr. W. greased his hoots with this morning ?" "Please marm, I baked the griddle cakes with it." "Lucky you did, Miss, I thought you had

A liula boy, on coming home from a cerperforming on an organ, said to his mother:
O, mammy! I wish you had been at church to-day to see the fan-A man pumping music out of an old cupboard!

Why is Sunday the strongest day in the week! Because all others are meak days.